versus
Eternal Dreams Entertainment India Pvt.Ltd.	: Org.Respondent
And
Eternal Dreams Entertainment India Pvt.Ltd.	: Applicant

Mr.Sanskar Marathe i/by Deven Dwarkadas & Co. for the Applicant.

CORAM : A.M.KHANWILKAR, J.

DATED : DECEMBER 07, 2007.

P.C.

1. Heard counsel for the applicant. If the relief claimed in this application is granted, that would result in modifying the condition specified in order dated 24th March 2006, on the basis of which company petition came to be dismissed. The period during which the original petitioner was required to comply with the condition stood extended in terms of order dated 13th April 2007. It is not disputed that the original petitioner has taken steps within time in terms of order dated 13th April 2007. If it is so, the condition provided in the order dated 24th March 2006 in Company Petition no. 614 of 2005 automatically stood activated. If the applicant/respondent has any grievance with regard to the appropriateness of said condition, they ought to have questioned the correctness of the decision dated 24th March 2006. However, that order has been allowed to become final. In the circumstances, the relief claimed by the applicant in this application can not be considered. Hence this application is rejected. Parties to act on the basis of condition specified in the order dated 24th March 2006
